Malta Radio Transmitting Station (Memo 377) (Mr B. Cochrane was in attendance)

It was agreed that the Management of the Malta Television Service be asked to defer the operation of the Malta Radio Transmitting Station in the near future as announced by them in a Press Release issued on the 29th March, 1965. In the meantime negotiations should be started to explore the possibility of whether the station could become the supervision of the main government or whether the Malta Television Service would be solely the operators.

The Cabinet authorized the Administrative Secretary to conduct the negotiations as early as possible and to choose his technical advisers who he thinks most suitable.
