8th September

The Cabinet considered the views expressed in minute (28) in file and agreed that the 8th September should cease to be a public holiday.

Policies pursued by Malta Government representatives abroad.

(Mr. F. Amato Jani, Dr. A. Pardo and Mr. J. Agius were in attendance)

Hon. Ministers reviewed

The policies pursued so far both at the United Nations and other countries by Malta Government Missions, and considered those which would be followed, in regard to the question of Rhodesia and to the possible admission of China to the United Nations. They discussed again the establishment of diplomatic relations with the U.S.S.R.

Osmond Oliver
Prime Minister
