Percentage Increase in Salaries & Wages.
 (Memo. No. 746)

(The Hon. Mr. E. Ancheri was in attendance)

The Cabinet considered the claim made by the Staff Side of the Malta Government's Joint Council for a percentage increase in salaries & wages. The claim was based on the rise in the costs of living index. After due consideration of all relevant factors the Cabinet agreed that Government should grant an increase of 4% on current salaries and wages of all Government employees with effect from 1st April, 1967. This percentage increase was subject to negotiations in the Malta Government Joint Council and in the Joint Industrial Council.
